

I am writing to note my objection to any weakening of the DO NOT CALL standards in New Jersey. We the public do not want the FCC or any other entity reversing our protection against businesses who use telemarketing to harass consumers.